Re: Supreme Court No. 94273-1 - State of Washington v. Hollis Blockman

Counsel:

The above case is set for oral argument on November 14, 2017, as the 3rd case. Cases 1 and 2 will be heard in the morning, with Court convening at 9:00 a.m. Cases heard in the afternoon will convene at 1:30 p.m. Counsel who are participating in oral argument should report to the bailiff prior to 8:30 a.m. for morning oral arguments and at 1:00 p.m. for afternoon oral argument.

Oral argument will be held in the "Schneebeck Concert Hall" which is located in the Music Building at the University of Puget Sound. I have attached a link to the campus map which shows the location of the college and a link to a campus map and parking information. Parking is somewhat limited so please allow some extra time to find visitor parking. The address of the college is 1500 N. Warner St., Tacoma, WA. If you are running late on the day of oral argument please text message, or call the Bailiff, Guy Rosser, at 360-507-0495. You can e-mail the bailiff at guy.rosser@courts.wa.gov.

Counsel should acknowledge receipt of this letter regardless of whether they are appearing at oral argument. E-mail acknowledgement to Camilla.Faulk@courts.wa.gov. Please list the case number, name and date of oral argument in your e-mail.

Oral argument will be twenty minutes per side. If a party wishes to request thirty minutes per side for oral argument, the request must be submitted in writing. The Court strongly encourages that, whenever possible, oral argument should be presented by only one-or at most two-counsel per side.

If counsel are aware of any potential amicus curiae, they should be advised RAP 10.2(f)(1), as amended on September 1, 2014, that amicus curiae motions and briefs must be served and received by the Court not later than 45 days before oral argument. (If that date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the motion and or/brief must be received by the proceeding day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.)

Information on directions, parking and campus map can be found at the following web site: <http://www.ga.wa.gov/Park/visitor.htm> and <http://www.ga.wa.gov/images/campus-map.pdf>.

Opinions are usually released at 8:00 a.m. on Thursdays. On Wednesdays, a notice will be on the court's homepage, <http://www.courts.wa.gov/home.cfm>, of those opinions that may be released the next morning. E-mail notification of opinion releases is also available by signing up at the court's web site. Once the opinion in this case is released, counsel for both parties will be notified by e-mail and a scanned copy of the opinion will be sent as an attachment to e-mail the same day. For this reason, all counsel should keep their e-mail address with the Washington State Bar Association current. Copies of the opinion will no longer be mailed, unless counsel does not have a viable e-mail address. The opinion is also available on the court's homepage (<http://www.courts.wa.gov/opinions/recent.cfm>)

Sincerely,

Camilla Faulk
Case/Office Manager
