Good morning,

I just ran the male in facial recognition. I attached reports for a guy who came up multiple times in different searches. I think he looks similar.

Good morning! Detective Mike Grant provided your information to me and we've actually been chatting in our office about acquiring some software, what product are you folks currently using? Are you happy with it, how about cost?

Thanks!

All,

I'd sent out video on the Flist and this gal from King County replied, I've attached the "work product."

May want to keep her in mind for attempt to IDs in the future.
