Telephonic

All parties present by telephone. The parties' submissions have been reviewed by the Court.

The Court questioned counsel regarding the relevance of the photographs.

Court: The Court finds that the disclosure of witnesses Morales and Sheehan to be timely and will not exclude them, but will allow additional time for the two witnesses to be deposed.

Counsel will work together to schedule the depositions without a court directed deadline.

Upon request, Plaintiffs will provide defendants with a date range for the photographs.
