No. 14-2-30190-1 SEA

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

~~[PROPOSED]~~

THIS MATTER came on for hearing before this Court upon John Doe A, a minor by and through his legal guardians Richard Roe and Jane Roe; and John Doe B and John Doe J, as individuals and on behalf of other similarly situated (collectively, "Plaintiffs") Motion for Temporary Restraining Order.

1 Having considered Plaintiffs' motion and all pleadings submitted in support of and in
2 opposition to the motion, the requirements of CR 65, as well as arguments of counsel and the 3 parties, the Court FINDS:

4
5 1. Plaintiffs have a clear legal and equitable right to enjoin the release of Level I sex
6 offender registration records and evaluations made pursuant to the Special Sex Offender
7 Sentencing Alternative ("SSOSA") to the general public, as disclosure would cause
8 immediate and irreparable harm and would not be in the public interest. Plaintiffs have shown
9 a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of their claims that other statutes exempt the records
10 from disclosure under the PRA, specifically RCW 4.24.050
11 and are "other statutes" under RCW 42.56.070(1). and Chapter 70.02 RCW.

12 2. Plaintiffs have a well-grounded fear of immediate invasion of their rights.
13 Defendants have indicated they will release the requested records absent an injunction.

14 3. A temporary restraining order is necessary and to preserve the status quo and
15 protect Plaintiffs from harm that will result from imminent disclosure to a member of the 16 general public of their personal information, including, but not limited to, their names, dates
17 of birth, full residential addresses, employers, schools, and crime of conviction contained in a 18 database of registered sex offenders, and the database itself.

20 4. A temporary restraining order is also necessary and to preserve the status quo and
21 protect Plaintiffs from harm that will result from imminent disclosure to a member of the
22 general public of any confidential health care information, including psychosexual or SSOSA
23 evaluations.

24 5. The harm to Plaintiffs would be irreparable, as Plaintiffs' claims in the underlying 25 litigation seek to permanently enjoin the release of such information except as permitted under RCW 4.24.550 and Chapter 70.02 RCW, and wrongful disclosure cannot be remedied at a later date.
26

6. The Court has scheduled a hearing on Plaintiffs' Motion for a Preliminary Injunction to be held on November 20, 2014. at 9:00am. in W-92B.

7. No bond is necessary.

The Court therefore ORDERS that Plaintiffs' Motion for Temporary Restraining Order is GRANTED; the Defendants shall not disclose or disseminate any records or information pertaining to Level I sex offenders pursuant to the request by Ms. Donna Zink, either as originally submitted or as amended.

DATED this NOV 07 2014 <sup>(*)</sup>th day of November, 2014.
