4. On July 23, 2014, K.R. received a mental health evaluation in jail. Id. at 4. On July 29, 2014, K.R.'s defense attorney received a copy of the evaluation finding K.R. was incompetent. Id.

- 5. On July 30, 2014, the court ordered that K.R.'s criminal proceedings be stayed and K.R be sent to Western State Hospital ("WSH") for a forty-five day restoration. Attached as Exhibit B is a true and accurate copy of K.R.'s court order for restoration services.
- 6. On August 21, 2014, WSH responded to K.R.'s defense attorney's inquiries regarding the status of K.R.'s admission for restoration. Attached as Exhibit C is a true and accurate copy of the email exchange between K.R.'s attorney and WSH. According to the WSH email, WSH had received the court order for competency on June 30, 2014. Ex. C. WSH also stated "it is taking about 60+ days before admission." Id
- 7. As noted in the motion to show cause, K.R. has an offender score of zero demonstrating that he does not have a prior felony record. Ex. A, p. 5. If he is convicted of his charge, the standard range for jail time is one to three months. Id.
- 8. The hearing on the motion to show cause was held on September 10, 2014. Attached as Exhibit D is a true and accurate copy of the verbatim report of proceedings. The court stated, "There are questions in my mind about resolving this whole matter by a determination that Mr. Roberts has spent almost the maximum time under the standard range in this case, and that's almost 90 days..." Id. at 7.
- 9. The court went on to state that it did not hold WSH in contempt because of the lack of clarity regarding the enforceability of the aspirational targets set forth in Wash. Rev. Code §§ 10.77.220 and 10.77.068. Id. at 8.

10. The court also noted concerns regarding the inherent in	individual approach in stat
court proceedings to address a statewide issue and stated that the abo	ove-captioned federal actio
'appears to be a much more structured possibility as far as a global so	olution." Id. at 11.

- 11. On September 26, 2014, after waiting twenty days in Thurston County Jail for competency evaluation and fifty-six days for competency restoration, I received a call from K.R.'s mother and next friend informing me that K.R. had been released from Thurston County Jail on personal recognizance.
- 12. On October 3, 2014, K.R. was admitted to WSH for competency evaluation. Attached as Exhibit E is a true and accurate copy of a WSH email exchange confirming admission.
 - 13. I have also reviewed the current waitlists at ESH and WSH.
- 14. According to the data provided by ESH, there are currently sixty individuals waiting in jail for competency evaluation or restoration services. Attached as Exhibit F is a true and accurate copy of the October 24, 2014 wait lists provided by ESH.
- 15. The majority of these pre-trial detainees are waiting in jail for competency evaluation: forty-four of these individuals are waiting more than seven days, nineteen are waiting more than thirty-five days, and three are waiting more than fifty-six days. Id.
- 16. According to the data provided by WSH, there are currently one hundred and forty-four individuals waiting in jail for competency evaluation or restoration services. Attached as Exhibit G is a true and accurate copy of the October 27, 2014 wait lists provided by WSH. One hundred and one individuals are waiting more than seven days for these services. Id. Of those, eighty-five have been found incompetent but are still incarcerated in city and county jails while they wait for restoration services. Id. Of those found not competent, seventy-six are individuals who have been charged with misdemeanors. Id.
